

Fort Bend Hearing Doctor of Audiology Externship

We are seeking a compassionate, motivated, and hard-working audiology extern to join our busy private practice for their 2026-2027 externship year. Fort Bend Hearing offers a wide range of audiological services with a strong emphasis on patient-centered care and clinical excellence.

About Our Practice

Our team provides comprehensive hearing healthcare to both pediatric and adult populations in a warm and collaborative environment. Services provided include:

- ❖ Diagnostic Hearing Evaluations for all ages, including:
 - Distortion Product Otoacoustic Emissions (DPOAEs)
 - Tympanometry and Acoustic Reflexes
 - Speech in Noise Testing
 - Weber and Stenger Tests as needed
 - Conventional, Conditioned Play, and Visual Reinforcement Audiometry
- ❖ Hearing Aid Dispensing of various manufacturers, including Lyric extended wear devices
 - Verification of devices with Real Ear Measures and Test Box Measurements
- ❖ Tinnitus and Sound Tolerance Disorder (Hyperacusis and Misophonia) Evaluations and Management, including dispensing of Lenire devices
- ❖ Cerumen Management with Instrumentation and Irrigation
- ❖ Earmold Impressions for Speciality Earplugs
- ❖ Extensive Patient Education and Counseling

In addition to the regular services provided above, our office does also see Cochlear Implant patients and perform evaluations for Central Auditory Processing (CAPD). We are in the Cochlear Provider Network (CPN).

What to Expect

As a fourth-year extern, you will:

- ❖ Gain hands on experience in all of the services mentioned above
- ❖ Develop skills in patient communications, counseling, and long-term management
- ❖ Observe and assist with the operations of a busy private practice, including patient management, marketing, and insurance/billing processes
- ❖ Participate and attend local off-site trainings and seminars as they become available
- ❖ Grow your skills and confidence in clinical services with increasing independence as appropriate

Who We Are Looking For

The core values at Fort Bend Hearing are Integrity, keeping a Servant's Heart, and maintaining Relevance in our field. We prioritize these values to create a supportive, compassionate, and diligent work culture. Our ideal extern should be:

- ❖ Empathetic. Our team makes an effort to truly listen to our patients and each other.
- ❖ Hardworking. We take pride in going the extra mile to provide the best care for our patients and the needed support for each other.
- ❖ Honest. We maintain open communication within our team to ensure all problems are addressed appropriately.
- ❖ Flexible and Open-Minded. As a small practice, many duties are shared among the clinicians and support staff alike. We value flexibility to make patient care as seamless as possible and help days go smoothly.
- ❖ Passionate. We strive to remain on the cutting edge of audiological care. We require a high level of passion for learning and growth to maintain the greatest relevance in our profession.
