About Our Clinic

McArthur Audiology is a thriving private practice serving rural communities across eastern Colorado and western Kansas. We provide ethical, relationship-centered care to patients of all ages and are proud to be the trusted provider in a region spanning over 300 miles. Our team works closely with area ENTs and primary care physicians and is deeply committed to patient education, clinical excellence, and community engagement.

We are part of the Cochlear Provider Network and offer advanced diagnostic and rehabilitative services including tinnitus management, hearing aid fitting with real-ear verification, and cochlear implant evaluation and follow-up.

McArthur Audiology is one of the founding members of Hearing the Call Colorado, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, and students will have the opportunity to provide hearing healthcare services to low-income individuals who may otherwise not have access.

What You'll Learn

Our extern will gain experience in a broad range of services in both private practice and ENT-affiliated rural outreach settings. Clinical training includes:

- Diagnostic audiologic evaluations (pediatric through geriatric)
- Tinnitus assessments and management
- Hearing aid selection, fitting, and verification
- Cochlear implant services
- Local outreach services
- Opportunities to assist in expanding services (e.g., ABR or vestibular) for qualified and committed candidates

This externship is ideal for a motivated student seeking a high-volume, diverse clinical experience with the opportunity to develop strong patient relationships in a tight-knit rural community.

Benefits

- Commission-based compensation
- Paid mileage between clinic locations
- Paid holidays
- Simple IRA retirement plan

What We're Looking For

- Positive, team-oriented attitude
- Self-motivated and eager to grow
- Passion for patient-centered care
- Interest in long-term impact and service in rural healthcare
- Willingness to explore and potentially lead specialty services
